Overview

The Medina Foundation is pleased to support your work. As stated in the initial grant contract, we ask that you complete this status report one year after receiving a grant. Our hope is that this is an opportunity to share your outcomes and successes as well as challenges over the year. Your input helps inform our grantmaking as we continue to learn and work together.

Please note: 1) Status reports must be submitted before any requests for further funding will be considered. 2) We encourage you to keep your answers as concise as possible, in consideration of your time and resources. 3) Please save your resources--do not send additional information such as DVDs, pamphlets, photos, etc. If you need to share any additional information outside the scope of this report, please feel free to contact us.

Planned Objectives vs. Actual Outcomes
